Shinano River Flame Pot Road

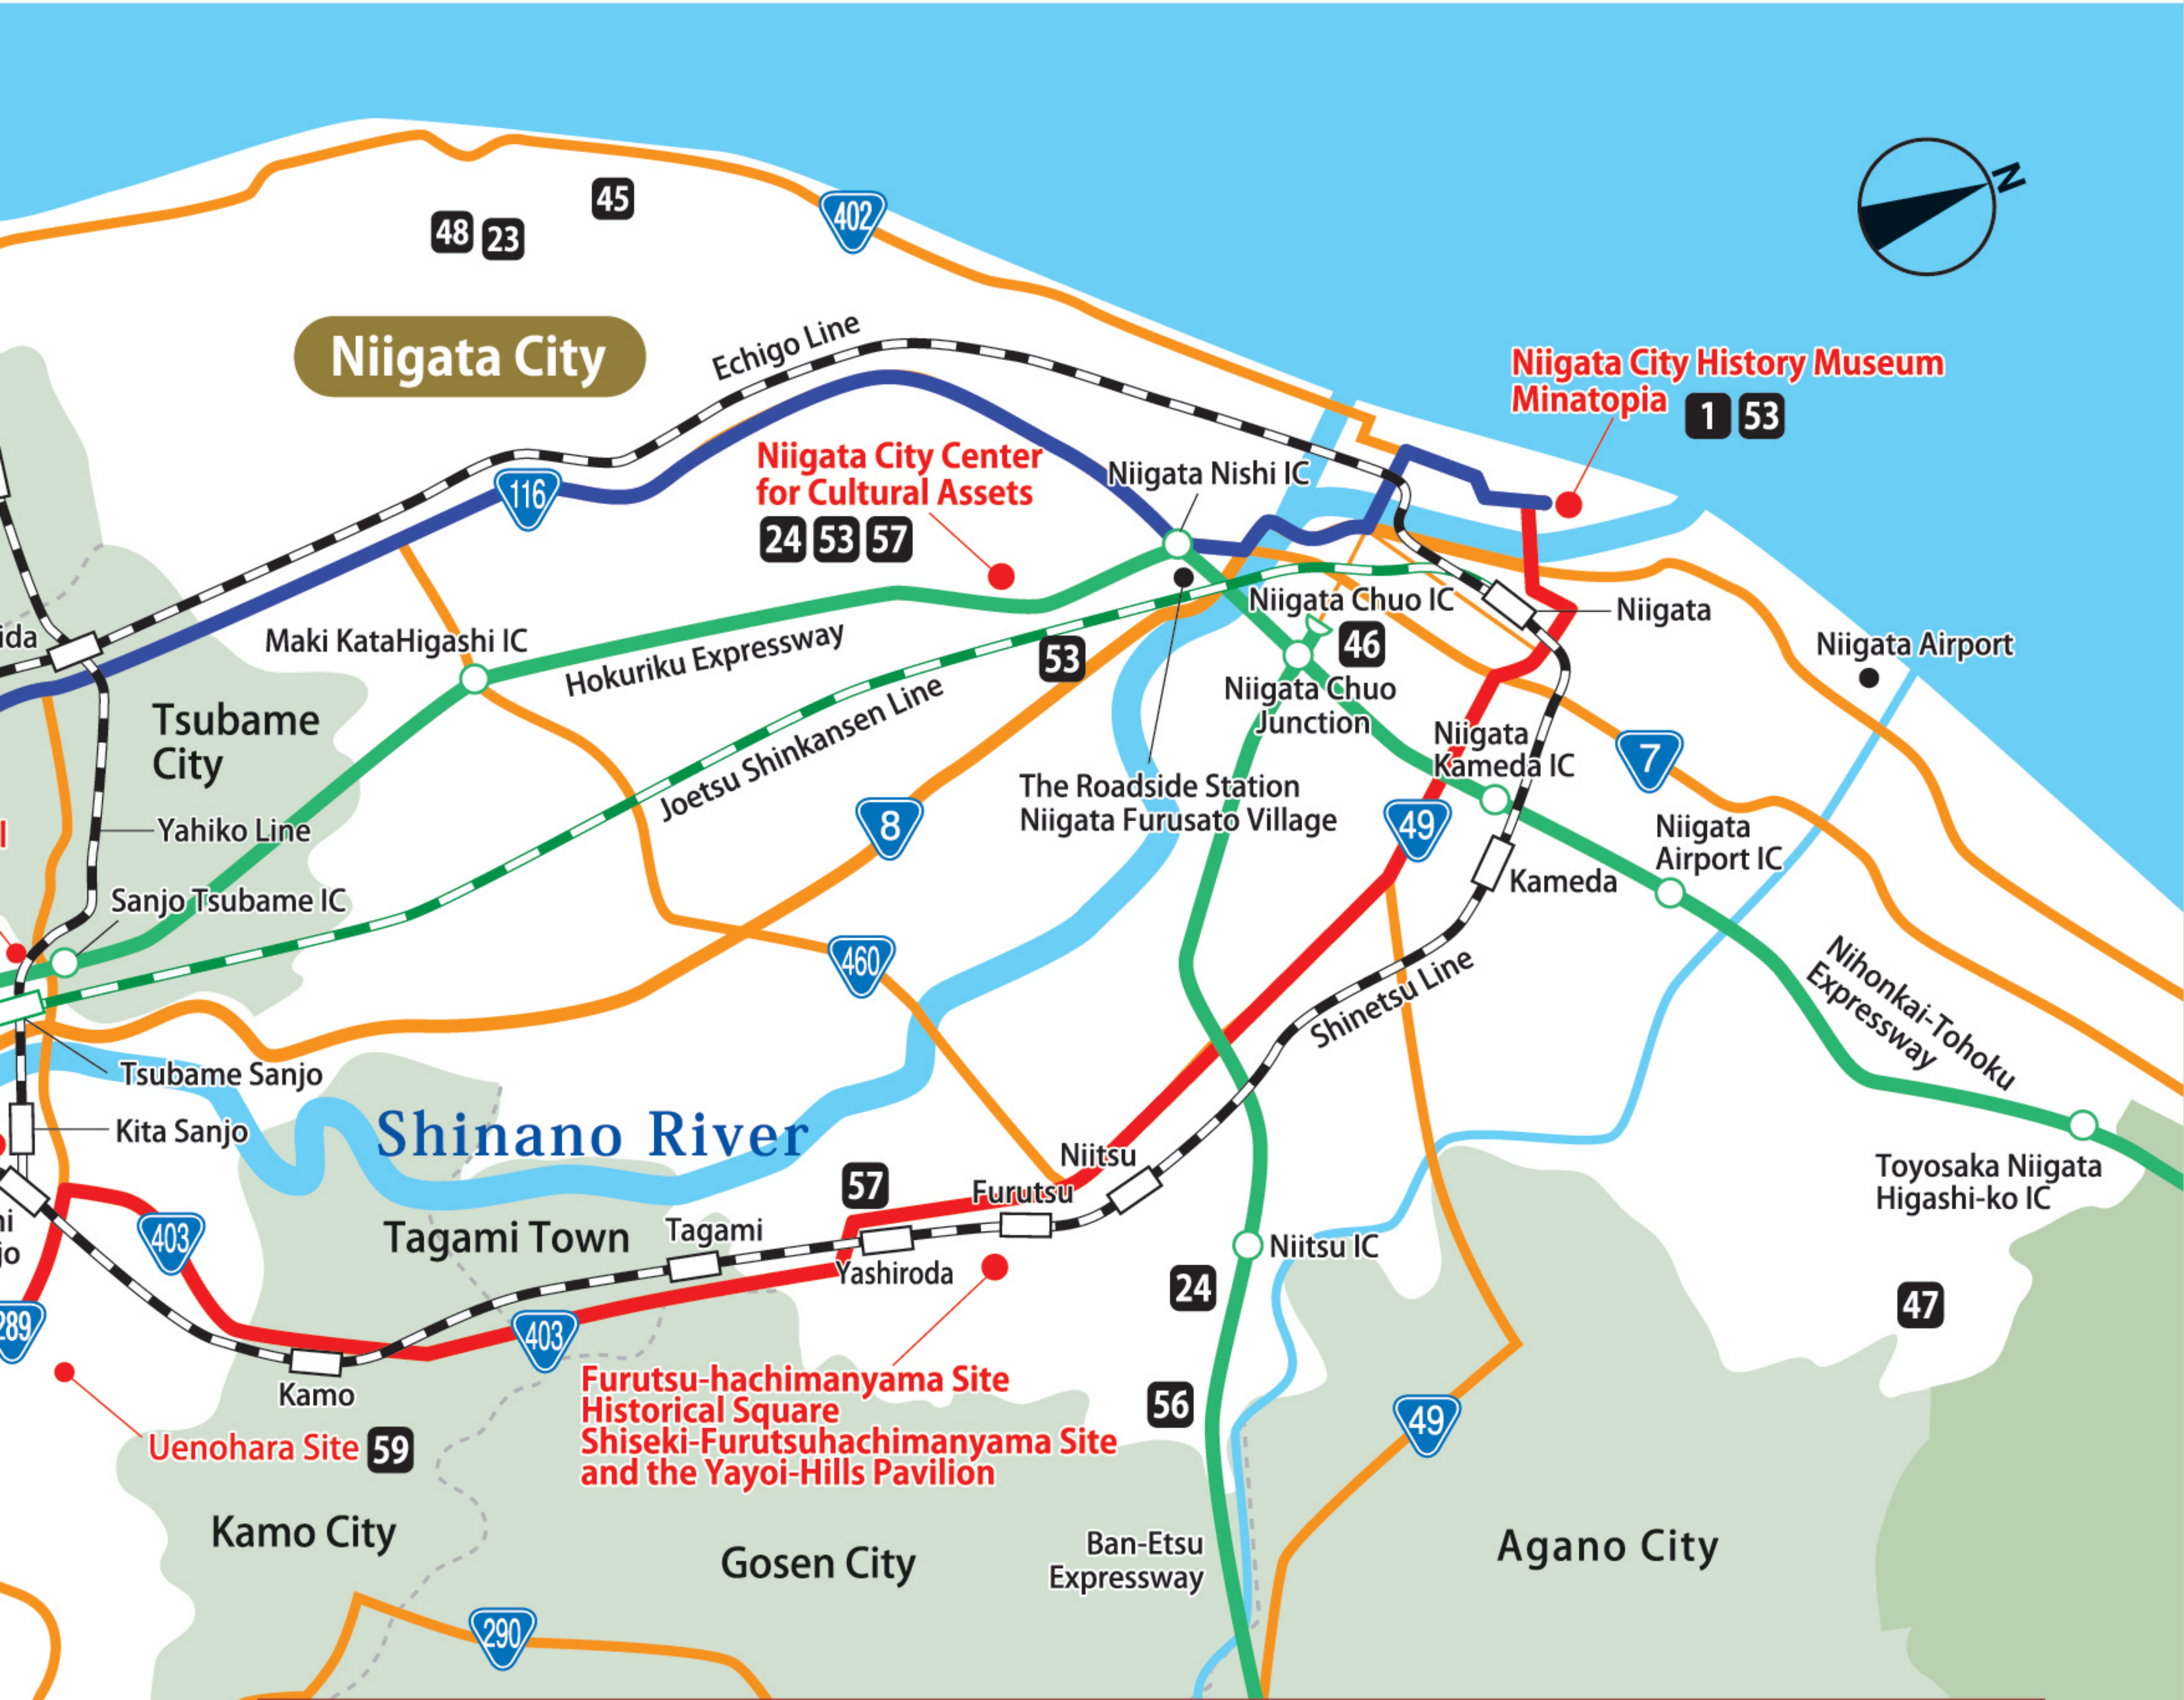

Flame pots symbolizing the Jomon culture were created in the Shinano River basin about 5,000 years ago. The surrounding areas of Niigata City, Sanjo City, Nagaoka City, Tokamachi City and Tsunan Town are treasure houses of Jomon period sites. Valuable excavated items including National Treasures and Important Cultural Properties are displayed in museums and resource centers in each area. In addition, numerous cultural heritage and scenic spots rich in nature dot the surroundings. Experience the appeal of Japanese heritage on Flame Pot Road along the Shinano River.

Enjoy Flame Pot Road on the East and West Routes!

There are areas where many sites from the Jomon period are on both sides of the Shinano River. We are called the East and West Routes of Shinano River Flame Pot Road. You can go around the sites in the Shinano River basin from the West Route to the East Route or the other way around.
